

Information

Wabash & Erie Canal Park is located on the north side of the Wabash and Erie Canal off North

Hiking, fishing, picnicking, biking, and cross-country skiing are available during the various seasons.

The newest addition is the replica The Delphi, which offers rides on the Another popular venue is the large playground canal boat near the Canal Center. This provides a sturdy

A picnic shelter and access to Delphi Historic Trails are also featured.

Map Us!

{mosmap width='400px'|height='300px'|lat='41.50183470854495'|lon='-88.67849719524384'}|zo

Following trails to the east side of Washington Street, the visitor can explore the Canal Park Area

More complete information about the Interpretive Center

Wabash and Erie Canal Park and can be found at their website.

Wabash and Erie Canal Park Attractions:

- Reed Case House – This grand Federal style house was built in 1844 by Reed Case, contractor
- Van's Blacksmith Shop/Jim's Carpentry Shop – This shop was erected in 1991 by volunteers to demonstrate
- Fur-Trapper's Cabin – Previously used as a place to repair muzzle-loaders and other guns, this
- Snack Shack – Formerly the summer kitchen for the Kun's cabin, now a summer refreshment
- Speece Shelter House – Picnic shelter constructed from poplar joists and rafters from the 1840s

- Boone's Tavern – A log recreation of an early 19th century meeting place.
- Bowen Log House/Canal Tower – Two-story log cabin constructed of ash logs, re-located from near Delphi, Ohio.
- Railway Baggage Barn – A small baggage building which was relocated near the present railroad.
- Mule Barn – A barn behind the Canal Center equipped to show shelter for mules that were used to pull the canal boats.
- Towpath and trails system – The trail and road along the canal provides a scenic view of the canal and surrounding area.

Noble Bikes and Concessions

Delphi & Paulownia Historic Trails

